

Zug Commodity Association Evening Event – Wednesday, 15 June 2016

Humanitarian help in middle east's war zones Anti-Terror Awareness Trainings

From the commodity trading offices in Zug to war zones in Syria and Iraq! Severiyos will explain the situation on the ground and his motivation to support war affected families in the Middle East. He will present his charity organization "ARAMAIC RELIEF International" with its humanitarian aid projects for the vulnerable war victims and shows ways how to support effectively.

For working in high risk areas, personal safety is essential. Not only in the Middle Eastern countries, but also Europe is increasingly confronted by terror threats and criminal acts. Many companies and its employees are traveling to unsafe and dangerous locations. For deployment in medium- to high-risk areas and for working under austere conditions a professional preparation and specific trainings are highly recommendable. Together with a former Soldier and anti-terror specialist we have launched specific security workshops and trainings. As introduction participants will be able to learn some useful tips/instructions on how to increase the personal safety in unsafe environments and protect their employees. Furthermore we will provide you more detailed information about our courses/workshops and safety solutions in order to enhance your life-saving skills.

We hope you can join us for the event and for drinks afterwards!

Mr. Severiyos Aydin

Founder, ARAMAIC RELIEF International and Centurio Global Security

Severiyos Aydin born in 1985 in Switzerland belongs to the christian minority of Arameans. His parents fled in the 60ties from Turkey to Switzerland as political refugees. After his commercial apprenticeship and further education in economics and logistics he worked for 12 years in commodity trading business. He collected valuable experience in accounting, IT, Risk and Traffic departments as well as Trading petrochemicals. When the war started in Syria, he eagerly tried to make international organizations aware about the forgotten and persecuted minorities in Syria and Iraq, without success. Consequently in the age of 27 in January 2013 he founded his own charity organization called ARAMAIC RELIEF International with a strong focus on immediate humanitarian help to internally displaced families in war affected areas, reaching the needy, forgotten and vulnerable minorities in Syria and Iraq. In 2016 he established a security company providing safety solutions and workshops to prepare people for all kind of risk-laden environments.
